NIGHT HIGH SCHOOL

Gales School Closes Its Session and Makes Promotions.

Out of 140 Scholars, 115
Go to Next Higher
Classes.

Twenty-seven pupils of the Gales
Night School, which closed its session of eighty nights yesterday, have been transferred to the Night High School.

Although the session was twenty nights Although the session was twenty hights longer than in previous years there was no decrease in attendance and the work accomplished during the session was of such merit that out of the 140 pupils 115 were transferred to the next higher classes. During the session there was an average night attendance of 122.

The school is under the charge of Charles Hart, principal, and assisting him are Minnie E. Compton, eighth Alsop, David.

ASSOCIATED HARVARD CLUBS JOHN G. CAPERS' FATHER TO MEET IN PHILADELPHIA

The Associated Harvard Clubs will hold their twelfth annual meeting in Philadelphia Friday and Saturday, May 8 and 9. The headquarters will be at the Bellevue-Stratford.

A dinner to the council will be given on Friday, followed by a snoker at the Bellevue-Stratford at 8 o'clock. There will be a business meeting Saturday morning at the hotel, and at 12:30 o'clock the delegates will have a boat luncheon on the Delaware river. The annual dinner will be held at the Bellevue-Stratford Saturday evening.

COLUMBIA, S. C., April 16.—Bishop Elison Capers, seventy-one years old, is extremely ill here. His family is at his bedside, including Capt. John G. Capers, of Washington, Commissioner of Internal Revenue. His death is momentarily expected.
